Attached herewith is The Guide Book to laws and decisions organizing the charity work activities and organizations in Kuwait.

Attached herewith is a list explaining the projects financed by our charity institutions in the Netherlands.

- The Society of the Revival of Islamic Heritage to the Al-Fitrah Institution:
- * The cooperation between the Society of the Revival of Islamic Heritage and Al-Fitrah Institution was in the field of propagation and education through contributing in buying the center used for this purpose
- * The cooperation with Al-Fitrah Institution was because it is an official Dutch institution recognized by the Dutch laws (attached herewith is a copy of a certificate of good conduct issued by the Ministry of Security and Justice of the Netherlands).
- * All Kuwaiti charity organisations were instructed not to deal with Al-Fitrah Institution based on a request from the Dutch authorities. This request was accepted due to the strong relations between the two countries.
- * We would like to reiterate that all charity organizations are active in the field of youth awareness and combating extremism and terrorism. Those organizations have the trust of the Kuwaiti government.
  - All persons in charge of the Kuwaiti charity organizations are known of moderation and they have clear efforts in combatting extremism. The Kuwaiti government relies on them in spreading moderate ideology of Islam.

With regard to your inquiry on possible Kuwaiti financial links with 'Eid Charity' in Qatar, 'Al Nour Stiftung' in Heidelberg Germany, the Ministry will look into this and provide you with the information as early as possible.
